GTS Honored With Glass Magazine's 2010 Crystal Achievement Award
for Most innovative Industry-Specific Software

PORTLAND, OR. – September 8, 2010 – GTS Services, a division of Pittsburgh Glass Works and the leading software and services provider to the glass industry, was honored today by Glass Magazine's 2010 Crystal Achievement Award for Most Innovative Industry-Specific Software.

GTS GlasPac[®]LX Glazier Edition with Microsoft Dynamics[®] empowers contract glazing companies to manage and control all aspects of their jobs from estimating to project management through financial accounting and business analysis. GlasPacLX eliminates complex steps and non-value added functions found in competing software solutions to deliver only what a glass company requires to improve profitability.

"One of the best decisions I've ever made was moving to the on-line version of GlasPacLX with Microsoft Dynamics GP." Doug Linderer, Go-Glass Corporation.

Glass Magazine's 2010 Crystal Achievement Award winners are selected by a panel of judges representing all segments of the glass industry, the awards recognize the best products and glass applications the commercial, retail and fabrication markets have to offer. This year's program includes 30 categories but only one winner per category.

"We are honored to be recognized as one of the best products in this industry. We know that contract glaziers are facing tough times during this economic downturn, and our software is making a difference by streamlining and automating their workflow which in turn increases their productivity and reduces overhead costs," said Mike Jones, president of GTS. "GlasPacLX helps glass companies focus on the most profitable elements of their business."
